ORDER

The court has today filed the parties' stipulated order of permanent injunction and final judgment. In addition to the stipulated order, plaintiffs have submitted proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law in support of the permanent injunction and final judgment. The proposed findings and conclusions were discussed on the record at a January 30, 2026 hearing, but they remain the subject of court review prior to entry.

It will assist the court in determining which proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law are at issue if the parties will identify the findings of fact and conclusions of law that are stipulated or agreed to or are at least unopposed. As to those that remain, it will assist the court if the parties will state briefly the reason they cannot agree to, or at least choose not to oppose, the proposed finding or conclusion.

Once the court has reviewed the parties' submissions, it will enter the findings and conclusions that are supported by the evidentiary record, or will direct the parties to undertake other procedures that will enable the court to do so.

SO ORDERED.

February 2, 2026.
